

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - 11/11/19

Geoff Bryce Named Vice President of SOICA

CHICAGO, IL - Capital member Geoff Bryce has been appointed as Vice President of the Society of Illinois Construction Attorneys (SOICA).

SOICA recognizes Illinois lawyers who are distinguished for their skill, experience and professional conduct in the practice of construction law. Members discuss social and economic forces affecting the construction industry, as well as laws that underlie construction processes. The preeminent organization is an invitation-only membership. Attorneys must be nominated to join, and have practiced construction law for at least 10 years. Geoff previously served as treasurer and secretary.

Geoff is recognized throughout the construction industry as a Leading Lawyer<sup>SM</sup> for his work in construction, commercial litigation, toxic torts defense, personal injury defense and professional malpractice defense.

His work in professional liability was recently highlighted on the Professional Liability Defense Federation's (PLDF) website. PLDF enhances the effectiveness of professional liability professionals by bringing attorneys, claims professionals and risk management specialists together to share their knowledge and expertise. Geoff was recognized as a highlighted member, and has been an active member of PLDF for many years.
